Our History

Originally built as a hotel in 1865 and used by honeymooning Dubliners, it has always been synonymous with romance and a reputation for great food.

Just a 10-15-minute drive from Dublin City Centre, this landmark establishment in the seclusion of the Strawberry Beds – next door to the Phoenix Park, originally a royal hunting park dating back to 1660 with a large herd of wild fallow deer – has a history that stretches back to Cromwellian times and the famous patriot Michael Collins. It has long been considered as his favourite watering hole and for anglers fishing along the banks of the adjacent River Liffey.

Today, the tradition of great food and drink continues with a strong culinary reputation, including the freshest seafood landed by Wrights of Howth, and a wide selection of national and international brands of beers, wines and spirits.

“Where do i start, from the moment we went to view our venue we fell in love with the Anglers Rest. Our day was a day I will never forget, the anglers rest really do go above and beyond to make your day so special, our food was amazing, our guests were blown away by the rustic feel of this beautiful venue. Thank you so much to the crew for the most amazing day we truly enjoyed every minute.”

The Venue

Wright's Anglers Rest is one of Dublin's best known and most inviting wedding venues. We offer top class cuisine in a welcoming ambience beautifully styled in an elegant and unique setting. Charming features include rustic floors, exposed stone walls, sash windows, glamorous lighting, and gold leaf accents throughout. Old world charm meets vintage grace.

Our unrivalled location, only a stones-throw from Dublin city centre and on the banks of the River Liffey, will leave you with the feeling of being immersed in the tranquillity of the country-side. Coupled with this, there are an abundance of photo opportunities close by such as The Phoenix Park, the banks of the river or indeed throughout our venue.

Your Ceremony

Choose to host your ceremony on site with us and get the most out of your day..... after all, time flies when you're having fun!

Our stunning Collins Room upstairs, is yours complimentary for your ceremony. Guests will be greeted by a crackling log fire, an aisle filled with candle-lit lanterns and a warm and welcoming team. The room has breath-taking views of the River Liffey and beyond.

We are HSE approved, meaning we can cater for all types of wedding celebrations and can seat up to 120 guests. Lift access is available.

"From the beginning we were put at ease, it seemed nothing was too much to ask and the team there had a solution to all of our questions/worries. The venue itself is unique and beautifully decorated. The ceremony room is warm and intimate which made us feel like all of our guests were part of our special moment. The food was unbelievable. Our most difficult decision was what dishes to leave off the menu on the day! Having everything on the same floor, including a large balcony, meant that guests could get some air if needed and no-one had to leave the venue for the entire day."

We love all things quirky, unique and individual when it comes to weddings, and we go above and beyond to create the most special day for you and your family and friends.

Your vision is our mission.

"We had an absolutely amazing wedding in the Angler's Rest. Having a venue with really good food was something that was super important to us, and all of our guests were raving about how it was the best wedding food they ever had. As well as the food being really top quality, we were also able to have more choice on the menu compared to the other wedding venues we looked at. And the venue is beautiful, especially with all the fairy lights in the dining room. We were also able to do our photos at Farmleigh in Phoenix Park before the ceremony which was fab. Overall, a fantastic experience"
